1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 On September 19, 2022, this Court preliminarily approved the Settlement and 3 directed notice to be sent to the Settlement Class. See Order Re Plaintiffs’ Motion 4 for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order” 5 or “PA Order”), ECF No. 74. The settlement administrator has implemented the 6 Court-approved notice plan, which was designed to reach 80% of the certified 7 Settlement Class. Finegan Decl. ¶¶ 2-17; Fenwick Decl. ¶¶ 3-9. The reaction from 8 the Class has been overwhelmingly positive. To date, more than 875,000 class 9 members have filed claims.<sup>1</sup> There have been no requests for exclusion, and no
10 objections.<sup>2</sup> As this Court has noted, “[a] low proportion of opts outs and objections 11 indicates that the class generally approves of the settlement.” Arreola v. Shamrock
12 Foods Co., 2021 WL 4220630, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 16, 2021) (internal quotation 13 omitted) (Kronstadt, J). “[T]he absence of objections and small number of requests 14 for exclusion weighs in favor of final approval.” Brulee v. DAL Global Servs., LLC, 15 2018 WL 6616659 at *6 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 13, 2018) (Selna, J).

16 Accordingly, Plaintiffs Andre Galvan, Lucinda Lopez, Thu Thuy Nguyen, 17 Robert Meyer, and Jamelia Harris (“Plaintiffs”),<sup>3</sup> by and through Plaintiffs’ Lead 18 Counsel, respectfully submit this memorandum in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for 19 Final Approval of Class Action Settlement. The Stipulation of Class Action 20 Settlement (hereafter, “Settlement”) and its exhibits are attached as Exhibit 1 to the 21 Declaration of L. Timothy Fisher (“Fisher Decl.”), ECF No. 65-2.

22 Plaintiffs’ operative complaint, the Second Amended Class Action Complaint, 23 Dkt. No. 45 (“SAC”), alleges that Defendants Smashburger IP Holder LLC and 24 _____

25 <sup>1</sup> The deadline to file claims is January 17, 2023. See Order Regarding Settlement Deadlines, ECF No. 76.

26 <sup>2</sup> The deadline to object or opt-out of the Settlement was December 19, 2022. See Order Regarding Settlement Deadlines, ECF No. 76.

27 <sup>3</sup> All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same definitions 28 as set out in the settlement agreement. See Fisher Decl., Ex. 1, ECF No. 65-2.

1 Smashburger Franchising LLC (collectively “Smashburger” or “Defendants”)
2 misrepresented the size of their Triple Double, Bacon Triple Double, and Pub Triple 3 Double burgers (collectively, the “Triple Double Burgers”) as containing “Double 4 the Beef.” The lawsuit alleges that contrary to this statement, Triple Double Burgers 5 actually include two patties that are each half the size of the patties of Smashburger’s 6 regular-sized Classic Smash™ burgers, and thus do not contain “double the beef.”
7 Defendants have vigorously denied these allegations and asserted numerous 8 defenses.

9 The Settlement was only reached after two full-day mediations before Jill R.
10 Sperber, Esq. of Judicate West, and after a thorough investigation by Plaintiffs, 11 including reviewing the trademark case filed against Smashburger, entitled In-N-Out 12 Burgers v. Smashburger IP Holder LLC and Smashburger Franchising LLC, Case 13 No. 8:17-cv-01474, and protracted discovery, including Plaintiffs’ review of more 14 than 14,500 pages of documents produced by Defendants. Fisher Decl. ¶¶ 2 and 3, 15 ECF No. 65-2. The Settlement provides a real and substantial monetary benefit to the 16 Class. Defendants have agreed to provide $2,500,000 in cash (the “Cash Settlement 17 Fund”) and 1.5 million vouchers valued between $2.00 and $2.49 each, or over 18 $3,000,000 in total vouchers, to pay claims for those who purchased one or more of 19 the Subject Products. Id. ¶ 4. Class Members can receive a $4.00 cash award for 20 each Subject Product the Authorized Claimant purchased during the Class Period, up 21 to a maximum of five (5) claims (or $20.00 in cash) without Proof of Purchase. Id. <sup>4</sup>
22 Alternatively, the Authorized Claimant may choose to receive up to 10 product

23 _____
24 <sup>4</sup> If the aggregate value of the cash rewards claimed by Authorized Claimants 25 pursuant to valid and timely Claim Forms exceeds the Net Cash Amount, then the 26 monetary value of the awards to be provided to each Authorized Claimant shall be 27 reduced on an equal pro rata basis, such that the aggregate value of the awards does 28 not exceed the Net Cash Amount. If the aggregate value of the cash rewards claimed by Authorized Claimants pursuant to valid and timely Claim Forms is less than the Net Cash Amount, then the monetary value of the awards to be provided to each Authorized Claimant shall be increased on an equal pro rata basis, such that the aggregate value of the awards equals the Net Cash Amount.

1 vouchers. Id. The product vouchers will be fully and freely transferrable and allow 2 the bearer, upon the purchase of a regularly-priced entrée at a company owned 3 Smashburger-branded restaurant, to either upgrade a single beef hamburger to a 4 double beef hamburger for no additional cost or receive a free small fountain drink.
5 Id.<sup>5</sup>

6 Class certification for purposes of settlement is appropriate under Federal 7 Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a) and (b)(3). The proposed Class is so numerous that 8 the joinder of all Class Members is impracticable; there are questions of law or fact 9 common to the proposed Class; the proposed Class Representatives' claims are 10 typical of those of the Class; and the proposed Class Representatives will fairly and 11 adequately protect the interests of the proposed Class. In addition, common issues of 12 law and fact predominate over any questions affecting only individual members and 13 a class action as proposed here is superior to other available methods for the fair and 14 efficient adjudication of the controversy. Issues of manageability of a nationwide 15 class are of little consequence as the Parties now seek certification only of a 16 settlement Class. Further, Defendants have acted on grounds that apply generally to 17 the Class, so that final relief is appropriate respecting the class as a whole.

18 The Settlement is fair and reasonable and falls within the range of possible 19 approval. It is the product of extended arm's-length negotiations between 20 experienced attorneys familiar with the legal and factual issues of this case and all 21 Class Members are treated fairly under the terms of the Settlement. Plaintiffs, by 22 and through their counsel, have conducted an extensive investigation into the facts 23 and law relating to this matter as set forth below and in the Fisher Declaration, ECF 24 No. 65-2. Plaintiffs and their counsel hereby acknowledge that in the course of their

25 <sup>5</sup> If more than 1.5 million vouchers are requested, then the number of vouchers per 26 person will be reduced on an equal pro rata basis and if more than 1.5 million people 27 request vouchers, then the vouchers will be distributed based on when they were 28 requested. If fewer than 1.5 million vouchers are requested, the remaining vouchers will be donated to first responders, or some other charitable organization chosen by the Defendants, subject to the Court's approval.

1 investigation they received, examined, and analyzed information, documents, and 2 materials that they deem necessary and appropriate to enable them to enter into the 3 Settlement on a fully informed basis. It is an outstanding result for Class Members 4 as confirmed by the enormous class participation and the absence of opt-outs and 5 objections. The Court should have no hesitation in granting final approval.

6 II. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

7 On February 8, 2019, Plaintiff Andre Galvan filed a class action complaint 8 against Defendants in the United States District Court for the Central District of 9 California, Case No. 2:19-CV-00993-JAK-(JEMx), alleging that Defendants 10 mislabeled their Triple Double Burgers as containing “Double the Beef.”<sup>6</sup> On March 11 18, 2019, Mr. Galvan filed a first amended class action complaint against 12 Defendants.<sup>7</sup>

13 On March 11, 2019, Barbara Trevino filed a similar lawsuit against 14 Defendants in the United States District Court for the Central District of California, 15 Case No. 2:19-CV-02794. Plaintiffs in both actions moved for appointment of their 16 respective counsel as Lead Interim Class Counsel. On May 16, 2019, the Court 17 ordered Galvan’s lawsuit consolidated with the Trevino lawsuit and appointed 18 Bursor & Fisher, P.A. as Lead Interim Class Counsel. Dkt. No. 35. On September 19 19, 2022, in its Preliminary Approval Order, this Court appointed Bursor & Fisher, 20 P.A. as Lead Class Counsel. Dkt. No. 74.

21 On July 24, 2019, Plaintiffs Galvan, Lopez, Nguyen, Meyer, Trevino, and 22 Harris, filed a Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint. Dkt. No. 41. On 23 August 22, 2019, Plaintiffs filed their Second Amended Consolidated Class Action 24 Complaint,<sup>8</sup> which asserts claims for violations of the California Consumers Legal 25 _____

26 <sup>6</sup> Jollibee Foods Corporation was also named as a defendant in the complaint.

27 <sup>7</sup> The first amended complaint added Lucinda Lopez as a plaintiff and omitted 28 Jollibee Foods Corporation as a defendant.

1 Remedies Act (Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1750, et seq.) (“CLRA”), California’s Unfair
2 Competition Law (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.) (the “UCL”), 3 California’s False Advertising Law (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500, et seq.) (the 4 “FAL”), and violations of New York General Business Law §§ 349 and 350 5 (collectively, “NYGBL”), as well as claims for Breach of Express Warranty, Fraud, 6 and Unjust Enrichment. Dkt. No. 45.

7 The Parties have engaged in significant discovery. See Fisher Decl. ¶ 2, ECF 8 No. 65-2. The Parties exchanged and met and conferred concerning a number of 9 discovery requests, including interrogatories and requests for production. See id. In 10 response, Smashburger produced critical documents concerning the merits of the 11 case and its overall financial condition to Plaintiffs. Id. Plaintiffs reviewed over 12 14,500 pages of documents. Id. Plaintiffs also reviewed numerous files from the 13 trademark case filed against Smashburger, entitled In-N-Out Burgers v. Smashburger 14 IP Holder LLC and Smashburger Franchising LLC, Case No. 8:17-cv-01474. Id.
15 Finally, Plaintiffs retained a damages expert, who analyzed Defendants’ sales 16 information and worked with Plaintiffs’ counsel to develop a damages model. Id.

17 The Parties and their counsel have engaged in substantial arm’s-length 18 negotiations in an effort to resolve this action. Id. ¶ 3. On February 6, 2020, the 19 Parties participated in a full day of mediation with Jill R. Sperber, Esq. of Judicate 20 West. Id. The February 6, 2020 mediation did not result in a settlement, but the 21 Parties continued to work with Ms. Sperber toward a potential settlement. Id. On 22 May 7, 2020, the Parties participated in another full day of mediation with Ms.
23 Sperber. Once again, the Parties did not reach an agreement at the May 7 mediation, 24 but made sufficient progress and continued to work with Ms. Sperber in the months 25 that followed. Id. Finally, after more than eight months of intense negotiations, the 26 Parties executed a settlement term sheet on October 8, 2020. Id.

27 This Court preliminarily approved the Settlement on September 19, 2022.
28 ECF No. 74. Plaintiffs filed their motion for attorneys’ fees, expenses, and service

1 awards on December 5, 2022. ECF No. 77.

2 III. THE LEGAL STANDARD FOR FINAL APPROVAL

3 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23(e) requires court approval for class-4 action settlements. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). “When the parties reach a settlement 5 agreement before class certification, a court uses a two-step process to approve a 6 class-action settlement.” Alvarez v. Sirius XM Radio Inc., 2021 WL 1234878 at *5 7 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 8, 2021) (Selna, J.) (citing Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 952 8 (9th Cir. 2003)). “First, the court must certify the proposed settlement class.
9 Second, the court must determine whether the proposed settlement is fundamentally 10 fair, adequate, and reasonable.” Id. (internal citations omitted).

11 IV. CLASS CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS 12 APPROPRIATE

13 A. The Settlement Class

14 The Class consists of “all persons in the United States and United States 15 Territories who purchased and/or consumed one or more of the Subject Products 16 during the Class Period.” Settlement, at ¶ 7, ECF No 65-2 at 13. Excluded from the 17 Class are (a) Defendants and their employees, principals, officers, directors, agents, 18 affiliated entities, legal representatives, successors and assigns; (b) the judges to 19 whom the Action has been or is assigned and any members of their immediate 20 families; (c) those who purchased the Subject Products for the purpose of re-sale; 21 and (d) all persons who have filed a timely Request for Exclusion from the Class. Id.
22 The Class Period is July 1, 2017 through May 31, 2019. Id. at ¶ 10.

23 The Ninth Circuit has recognized that certifying a settlement class to resolve 24 consumer lawsuits is a common occurrence. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 25 1011, 1019 (9th Cir. 1998), overruled on other grounds by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v.
26 Dukes, 564 U.S. 338 (2011). When presented with a proposed settlement, a court 27 must first determine whether the proposed settlement class satisfies the requirements 28 for class certification under Rule 23. In assessing those class certification

1 requirements, a court may properly consider that there will be no trial. Amchem 2 Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997) (“Confronted with a request for 3 settlement-only class certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, 4 if tried, would present intractable management problems . . . for the proposal is that 5 there be no trial.”).

6 B. The Court Has Already Preliminary Certified The 7 Proposed Class

8 The Court’s Preliminary Approval Order provisionally certified a Settlement 9 Class after concluding that each of the requirements under Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) 10 were satisfied. PA Order, at 14, ECF No. 74. No substantive changes have occurred 11 since that ruling, and, more importantly, no objections have challenged that 12 conclusion. The Court may therefore rely on the same rationale as explained in the 13 preliminary approval order to find that class certification is appropriate under Rule 14 23(a) and (b) in connection with final approval. See Alvarez, 2021 WL 1234878, at 15 *5 (“[F]or the reasons specified in its preliminary approval order, the Court certifies 16 the Settlement Class for final approval of the Settlement.”); Ochinero v. Ladera 17 Lending, Inc., 2021 WL 4460334, at *4 (C.D. Cal. July 19, 2021) (Selna, J.) (noting 18 on final approval that “[t]he Court has already certified the Settlement Class for 19 purposes of this Settlement Agreement.”).<sup>9</sup>

20 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

21 Under Rule 23(e)(2), if the proposed settlement would bind class members, 22 the Court may approve it only after a hearing and only on finding that it is fair, 23 reasonable, and adequate. To make this determination, the Court must consider the 24 following factors:

25
26 27 <sup>9</sup> Plaintiffs incorporate by reference their prior arguments regarding certification of 28 the Settlement Class, as set forth in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, rather than repeating them here. See ECF No. 65-1 at 16:4-20:22.

- 1 (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the 2 class;
- 3 (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length;
- 4 (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account:
- 5 (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;
- 6 (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the 7 class, including the method of processing class-member claims;
- 8 (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorneys’ fees, including 9 timing of payment; and
- 10 (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and
- 11 (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

12 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2); see also Preliminary Approval Order at 15-16, ECF No. 74.

13 Before the revisions to the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), the Ninth 14 Circuit had developed its own list of factors to be considered. See, e.g., In re
15 Bluetooth Headset Products Liability Litigation, 654 F.3d 935, 964 (9th Cir. 2011) 16 (citing Churchill Village, L.L.C. v. General Electric, 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir.
17 2004)). “The revised Rule 23 ‘directs the parties to present [their] settlement to the 18 court in terms of [this new] shorter list of core concerns[.]’” Alvarez, 2021 WL 19 1234878, at *5 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2), 2018 Advisory Committee Notes).
20 “The goal of amended Rule 23(e) is ... to focus the district court and the lawyers on 21 the core concerns of procedure and substance that should guide the decision whether 22 to approve the proposal.” Id. (brackets and internal quotations omitted).

23 A. Adequacy Of Representation

24 “Under Rule 23(e)(2)(A), the first factor to be considered is whether the class 25 representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class. This 26 analysis includes ‘the nature and amount of discovery’ undertaken in the litigation.” 27 Alvarez, 2021 WL 1234878, at *5 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(A), 2018 28 Advisory Committee Notes).

1 Here, the Settlement was negotiated by counsel with extensive experience in 2 consumer class action litigation. See Fisher Decl. Ex. 2, ECF No. 65-2 (firm resume 3 of Bursor & Fisher, P.A.). Based on their collective experience, and after conducting 4 extensive research, discovery, and investigation, Plaintiffs’ Lead Counsel and Class 5 Counsel concluded that the Settlement Agreement provides exceptional results for 6 the Settlement Class while sparing Settlement Class Members from the uncertainties 7 of continued and protracted litigation.

8 “The recommendations of plaintiffs’ counsel should be given a presumption of 9 reasonableness.” In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1043 (N.D.
10 Cal. 2008). Deference to Plaintiffs’ counsel’s evaluation of the Settlement is 11 appropriate because “[p]arties represented by competent counsel are better 12 positioned than courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each party’s 13 expected outcome in litigation.” Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 967 14 (9th Cir. 2009) (citing In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir.
15 1995)).

16 As this Court found in its Preliminary Approval Order:

17 Counsel have actively and extensively litigated this matter. They have 18 “conducted extensive research, discovery, and investigation during the 19 prosecution of this action including,” (i) exchanging requests for 20 production and interrogatories; (ii) reviewing over 14,500 documents 21 produced by Defendants, including documents concerning its financial 22 condition, (iii) reviewing files from the trademark case filed against 23 Smashburger, entitled In-N-Out Burgers v. Smashburger IP Holder 24 LLC and Smashburger Franchising LLC, Case No. 8:17-cv-01474;
25 (iv) retaining a damages expert, who analyzed Defendants’ sales 26 information and worked with Plaintiffs’ Counsel to develop a 27 potential damages model; and (v) engaging in substantial arm’s-length 28 settlement negotiations. Fisher Decl. ¶¶ 2–3. Therefore, there is sufficient information for them to have made informed decisions about this action and its settlement.

1 PA Order, at 16-17, ECF No. 74. This same analysis supports final approval of the 2 Settlement.

3 B. Negotiated At Arm’s Length

4 The second Rule 23(e)(2) factor asks the Court to confirm that the proposed 5 settlement was negotiated at arm’s length. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(B). “As with the 6 preceding factor, this can be ‘described as [a] ‘procedural’ concern[ ], looking to the 7 conduct of the litigation and of the negotiations leading up to the proposed 8 settlement.’” Alvarez, 2021 WL 1234878, at *6 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2), 9 2018 Advisory Committee Notes). Courts will evaluate the settlement process as 10 well as the terms and conditions of the agreement to assure “that the agreement is not 11 the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating 12 parties.” Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009) (quoting 13 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027). “The involvement of a neutral or court-affiliated 14 mediator or facilitator in settlement negotiations may bear on whether those 15 negotiations were conducted in a manner that would protect and further the class 16 interests.” Alvarez, 2021 WL 1234878, at *6 (internal brackets and quotations 17 omitted).

18 Here, this Court previously determined in its Preliminary Approval Order that 19 the Settlement Agreement has been negotiated at arm’s length. PA Order, at 17-18, 20 ECF No. 74. As noted in the Court’s order:

21 There is no evidence of any fraud, overreaching or collusion among 22 the parties. They engaged in settlement negotiations with the 23 assistance of Jill Sperber, an experienced, private neutral. Dkt. 65-1 at 24 10; Fisher Decl. ¶ 3. The settlement negotiations were extensive. The 25 parties participated in two full days of mediation with Ms. Sperber—26 February 6, 2020 and May 7, 2020. Fisher Decl. ¶ 3. Only “after more than eight months of intense negotiations” did the parties reach a settlement on October 8, 2020. Id.

27 PA Order, at 17, ECF No. 74.

28 The Court further noted that the settlement consideration is non-reversionary

1 and, while the anticipated attorney fees are substantial, the Class will receive the 2 majority of the consideration.

3 This same analysis supports final approval of the Settlement.

4 C. Adequacy of Relief Provided For The Class

5 “The third factor the Court considers is whether ‘the relief provided for the 6 class is adequate, taking in to account: (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and 7 appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the 8 class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any 9 proposed award of attorneys’ fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any 10 agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3).” Alvarez, 2021 WL 11 1234878, at *6 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)). Under this factor, the relief “to 12 class members is a central concern.” Id. (internal quotation omitted).

13 As this Court has recognized, “[a] low proportion of opts outs and objections 14 ‘indicates that the class generally approves of the settlement.’” Arreola v. Shamrock
15 Foods Co, 2021 WL 4220630, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 16, 2021) (Kronstadt, J) 16 (quoting In re Toys R Us-Delaware, Inc. -- Fair & Accurate Credit Transactions Act 17 (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 456 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (collecting cases); see also In 18 re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1043 (N.D. Cal. 2008) (“It is 19 established that the absence of a large number of objections to a proposed class 20 action settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of a proposed class 21 settlement action are favorable to the class members.” (quoting Nat’l Rural 22 Telecomms. Corp. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528-29 (C.D. Cal. 2004)).

23 Here, there have been no objections to the settlement, no exclusions, and, to 24 date, more than 875,000 claims. Fenwick Decl. ¶ 8. Given that there are probably 25 millions of class members, the absence of any objections and exclusions and the 26 extraordinarily high number of claims furnishes strong proof that the Settlement is 27 adequate.

28 As set forth below, the Settlement is also adequate under the more particular 1 factors outlined in Rule 23(e)(2)(C).

2 1. Strength of Plaintiffs’ Claims, and the Costs,
3 Risks, And Delay Of Trial And Appeal

4 The first adequacy factor is “the costs, risks and delay of trial and appeal.”
5 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(i).

6 As noted by this Court:

7 It is “well-settled law that a cash settlement amounting to only a 8 fraction of the potential recovery will not per se render the settlement 9 inadequate or unfair.” Officers for Just., 688 F.2d at 628. “The 10 proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or 11 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the 12 negotiators.” Id. at 625. “Estimates of a fair settlement figure are 13 tempered by factors such as the risk of losing at trial, the expense of 14 litigating the case, and the expected delay in recovery (often measured 15 in years).” In re Toys “R” Us-Delaware, Inc.—Fair & Accurate 16 Credit Transactions Act (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453 (C.D.
17 Cal. 2014); see also Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 965 (“In reality, parties, 18 counsel, mediators, and district judges naturally arrive at a reasonable 19 range for settlements by considering the likelihood of a plaintiffs’ or 20 defense verdict, the potential recovery, and the chances of obtaining 21 it, discounted to the present value.”).

22 PA Order, at 18, ECF No. 74.

23 Here, Defendants’ maximum potential liability is approximately $6.7 million.
24 Id. The Settlement provides the Class with $2.5 million in cash and 1.5 million 25 vouchers valued between $2.00 and $2.49 each, or over $3 million in total vouchers.
26 The cash value of the Settlement alone equates to about 37 percent of the Class’s 27 maximum potential recovery. Id. The total value of the Settlement of no less than 28 $5.5 million equates to approximately 82 percent of the Class’s maximum potential recovery.

Absent settlement, Plaintiffs risk failing to certify a class, losing at summary judgment, losing at trial and/or losing on appeal. PA Order, at 18, ECF No. 74. In settling, Plaintiffs also avoid the delays associated with further litigation and appeals.

1 Id. “Indeed, Defendants continue ‘vigorously [to] deny Plaintiffs’ allegations and 2 assert that neither Plaintiffs nor the Class suffered any harm or damages’ and that 3 ‘their advertising campaign was not false or misleading and that Plaintiff would be 4 unable to certify any class.’” Fisher Decl. ¶ 6, ECF No. 65-2. Id. In settling, 5 Plaintiffs also avoid the risks of being unable to collect on a judgment.

6 It its Preliminary Approval Order, this Court noted that “[t]hese considerations 7 support the conclusion that the amount offered for the Gross Settlement Amount is 8 reasonable.” Id. The extremely positive reaction of the Class to the Notice of 9 Settlement only strengthens the Court’s conclusion.

10 2. Effectiveness of The Proposed Method Of 11 Distributing Relief to the Class

12 The second adequacy factor is “effectiveness of any proposed method of 13 distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member 14 claims.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(ii).

15 In its Preliminary Approval Order, this Court noted as follows regarding this 16 factor:

17 The proposed method of distributing relief to the Class is fair. The 18 notification process, including a settlement website, emailed notices, 19 and targeted internet and social media banner ads estimated to reach at 20 least 80% of the Settlement Class should be effective. See Settlement 21 Agreement ¶¶ 44, Finegan Decl. ¶¶ 3, 15-16; Dkt. 65-1 at 26–27. In 22 addition, the expected timeline for payment under the Settlement 23 Agreement is reasonable. Dkt. 65-1 at 26. Therefore, this factor 24 weighs in favor of preliminary approval.

25 PA Order, at 18, ECF No. 74.

26 The extraordinarily high participation of the Class in the Settlement supports 27 this Court’s conclusion as to this factor as well.

28 3. Proposed Attorneys’ Fees Award

Third, the Court must consider “the terms of any proposed award of attorneys’ fees, including timing of payment.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(c)(iii). The Settlement

1 Agreement provides that attorney’s fees and expenses ordered by the Court will be 2 the only compensation for Class Counsel and will be paid from the Cash Settlement 3 Fund. Settlement Agreement ¶ 51, ECF No. 65-2 at 27. “The Parties have no 4 agreement between themselves as to the amounts of Attorneys’ Fees.” Id.
5 “Defendants will have the right to challenge the amount of Attorneys’ Fees . . .
6 requested by Class Counsel.” Id.

7 Class Counsel seeks $825,000 in attorneys’ fees, representing 15% of the total 8 Settlement Fund or 33% of the Cash Settlement Fund. This amount is reasonable 9 relative to the benefits of the Settlement for Settlement Class Members, for all the 10 reasons stated in Plaintiffs’ December 5, 2022 Fee Brief. See ECF No. 77-1.
11 Plaintiffs’ December 5, 2022 Fee Motion was posted on the Settlement Web Site, 12 www.burgersettlement.com. No class member has objected to the request for 13 attorneys’ fees. Id. This factor also favors approval of the Settlement.

14 4. Agreement Identification Requirement

15 The Court must also evaluate any agreement made in connection with the 16 proposed Settlement. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(iv), (e)(3). Here, the 17 Settlement Agreement before this Court is the only agreement. Fisher Decl., ¶¶ 3-8, 18 ECF No. 65-2. Thus, the Court need not evaluate any additional agreements outside 19 of the evaluation it makes of the Settlement Agreement.

20 D. Equitable Treatment of Class Members

21 The final Rule 23(e)(2) factor turns on whether the proposed settlement “treats 22 class members equitably relative to each other.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(D).

23 The Preliminary Approval Order noted the following with regard to this 24 factor: “The Settlement Agreement provides that the Net Settlement Amount will be 25 allocated among all Class Members on a pro-rata basis. Dkt. 65-1 at 17. The method 26 of calculating the award to each Class Member is fair and reasonable. Accordingly, 27 this factor weighs in favor of preliminary approval.” PA Order at 19, ECF No. 74.

1 The Class’s post-notice reaction to the Settlement, and, in particular the 2 absence of objections and opt-outs, confirms this Court’s preliminary assessment of 3 this factor.

4 VI. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT CLASS MEETS THE NOTICE
5 REQUIREMENTS UNDER RULES 23(e)(1)(B) AND 23(c)(2)(B)

6 Rule 23(e)(1)(B) requires the court to “direct notice in a reasonable manner to 7 all class members who would be bound by” a proposed class settlement. Fed. R.
8 Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B). Rule 23(c)(2)(B) further directs that the notice be “the best 9 notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all 10 members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” Fed. R. Civ. P.
11 23(c)(2)(B). Rule 23(c)(2)(B) further states that the “notice may be made by one of 12 the following: United States mail, electronic means, or other appropriate 13 means.” Id. “The notice must clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood 14 language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the 15 class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance 16 through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the 17 class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting 18 exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 19 23(c)(3).” Id. Notice is satisfactory if it “generally describes the terms of the 20 settlement in sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate 21 and to come forward and be heard.” Churchill Vill., LLC v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 22 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004) (quoting Mendoza v. Tucson Sch. Dist. No. 1, 623 F.2d 23 1338, 1352 (9th Cir. 1980).

24 In its Preliminary Approval Order, this Court concluded that the Proposed 25 Notice adequately summarized the terms of the Settlement, advised the Class of the 26 choice between the cash award and the voucher options, informed the Class of the 27 Settlement Website URL and toll-free number and instructed the Class how to object 28 or opt-out. The Claims Administrator has implemented the Notice. Finegan Decl.

¶¶ 2-17; Fenwick Decl. ¶¶ 3-9. To date, there have been more than 875,000 claims, but no objections and no opt-outs. Fenwick Decl. at ¶ 8 The deadline to object and opt-out has lapsed.

The overwhelming participation in the settlement by the Class demonstrates that the notice previously approved by the Court and implemented by the Claims Administrator satisfies the notice standard. Accordingly, the Court should find that the Notice to the Settlement Class was fair, adequate, and reasonable.

VII. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant their Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement. A Proposed Order granting final approval and certifying the Settlement Class is submitted herewith.
